

Abolition of negative deposit interest rates

FIS Privatbank will completely abolish negative deposit interest rates for its clients as of 1 September 2022. FIS is thus reacting to the monetary policy decisions of the European Central Bank. We would like you, our valued customers, to benefit directly from this - long overdue - monetary policy development.

In the hope of further good business, we remain

Your FIS Privatbank S.A.